

Japan Video Production & Market Entry Cost & Planning Guide

What premium international brands should budget and prepare before filming or launching in Japan. Fukuoka & Tokyo.

Budget ranges (planning, not fixed quotes)

Costs depend on shoot days, crew size, location, creative direction, post-production, language, and deliverables.

- Small shoot / interview: JPY 200,000 - 700,000+. Small crew, one location, light edit.

Fukuoka vs Tokyo

Tokyo gives scale, agencies, studios, national media - and higher cost. Fukuoka is more agile for hospitality, restaurant, lifestyle, and regional stories. Streetshow operates from Fukuoka and produces across Japan, so you are not locked into one city.

Pre-quote checklist

Prepare these so a partner can scope accurately: goal, brand background, reference videos, target audience, shoot location, dates, deliverables, budget range, language needs, approval process, usage rights.

When you need a bilingual partner

If your team or agency is overseas, approvals are in English, and the shoot, vendors, or audience are Japanese - bilingual coordination prevents slow decisions, wrong assumptions, and expensive fixes.
